

Praise for Ecas artists from Director General of the National Galleries of Scotland

We were delighted to have John Leighton, Director General of the National Galleries of Scotland as our Guest of Honour for the private view of our art show. He is seen here with the Countess of Rosebery, Ecas President, and Elaine Boyd, an Ecas client, with one of Elaine's paintings.

John Leighton toured the exhibition of 78 works of art spread between 2 rooms at Norton Park, before joining the Directors, artists, staff and guests to make a speech and enjoy a light finger buffet.

John Leighton said: "It is wonderful to see a charity like Ecas running art classes and proving that people with a physical disability can enjoy their favourite hobbies. Art is something that can be enjoyed by everyone and I am sure that the art classes will continue to be a great success."
